Stupid John | small story in english

Even if you give a thousand pieces of advice to a fool, they will act as if all is in vain. One of them is John.

The name is John.

But neither can be relied upon him. However, his brother Nick tried his best to correct John.

Once.. Nick, who wanted to sell the luggage of things outside the village, said to his brother John, when he had finished loading the luggage in the cart, "I am sitting in the cart in front and driving. Keep looking at that. Is there any luggage falling behind you?"

"Of course brother. John agreed, "I will do as you say."

The luggage loaded on the cart fell while the cart was going down the ridge. He did not take them all.

Nick called, "brother!". John replied yes..

"Did any luggage fall?" asked Nick.

"Yes some things falled brother" said John

"Did you take it?" asked Nick.

"No, brother."

"Why didn't you take it?"

"You told me to come only by seeing whether the luggage is falling. But you didn't tell me to take it!"

"Oh stupid brother! From now on, whatever falls down, bring it safely."

"That's what I will do, brother!"John said.

John called, "Brother!"

He ran in front of the cart with a package in his hand, calling Bro....

"Did something fall!" asked Nick.

"Yes brother"

"What did you do?"

"I have taken it safely and kept it safe"John said.

"What does it mean?"

"Look, see for yourself" he said, unfolding the bundle of cloth in which the cow dung was.

"Damn brother! What is this?" He asked angrily.

"Brother! You only told me to pick up whatever fall's and bring it safely. I was also carefully looking at it. The cart carrying cow's dung fell down. So I kept safely as what you said to me," said John.

"You idiot! . You are not going to change your stupidness. I am a fool who wanted to correct you." Nick hit him on the head.
